ORDER:

The writ petition has been filed seeking a direction to the respondents to provide power supply to the writ petitioners' borewells.

By virtue of the interim direction granted by this Court on 31.12.2004 in W.P.M.P.No.32821 of 2004, the respondents were directed to release the power supply to the writ petitioners in accordance with the sanction orders passed in favour of the writ petitioners, within three weeks from the date of receipt of copy of the order, subject to the respondents intimating any requirement of compliance with any conditions to the writ petitioners without any further delay.

Sri K.V.A. Ramprasad, learned counsel, representing Sri T.V.S.

Prabhakararao, learned counsel for the writ petitioners has stated that in pursuance of the interim direction granted by this Court in W.P.M.P.No.32821 of 2004 on 31.12.2004, the writ petitioners were given the power supply by the respondents which is continuing up to date.

Smt. Rachana, learned counsel, representing Sri M. Sree Ramulu Reddy, learned counsel for the respondents is also heard.

It is not in dispute that there is no legal or factual hindrance for continuance of supply of power to the writ petitioners given in pursuance of the interim direction of this Court. Therefore, nothing further survives to be adjudicated in the writ petition.

Hence, the writ petition is closed. No costs. However, it is made clear that the petitioners are entitled to continuance of the benefit granted by this Court on 31.12.2004 in W.P.M.P.No.32821 of 2004.
